

Lunchtime Colloquium Summer Term, 23

18 April:
Kickoff and potluck lunch

25 April:
Katarzyna Puzon (HU Berlin)
Listening to the world - sounding out the archives

2 May:
Andrea Frohne (Ohio)
Free black and brown communities, the Ohio river and regional dis:connections

9 May:
Camille Serchuk (Southern Connecticut State)
Troubling boundaries: ornament and early modern cartography

16 May:
Cathrine Bublatzky (Tübingen)
Remembering from Iranian exile - photography, politics and everyday life

23 May:
Katharina Wilkens (Leipzig)
The formation of 'African' religion and culture in African socialism

6 June:
Jeanno Gaussi (Berlin):
Collected fragments

19 June (Monday 6 pm):
Zoltán Biedermann (UCL)
Global history lecture

20 June:
Zoltán Biedermann (UCL)
Connection, (dis)connection, (dys)connection: do words matter in the writing of global history?

27 June:
Roi Ball (Münster)
Dis:connecting kinship and empire: Swabian farming families and German imperial expansion, 1860-1920s

4 July:
Yolanda Gutiérrez (Hamburg)
RE-shaping history through body, memory and sound (audio walk)

18 July:
Arnab Dey (Binghamton)
Invisibilities: global capital and the politics of occupational health in British India

The colloquium takes place
Tuesdays, 11.30-13.00
at global dis:connect, a Käte
Hamburger Research Centre
Maria-Theresia-Straße 21,
81675 Munich

Come dis:connect with us.

